3.3.1.2 Información general sobre Búsqueda de oportunidades

Como el título de la sección, aquí tenemos información general sobre la competencia (Image 16).

GEN	IERAL INFORMATION FOR SPOTTING OPPORTUNITIES
When mov collaborati maintainin	ing internationally, social entrepreneurs need to be able to identify opportunities that could contribute in reaching their goals. These opportunities could be sources of funding, new markets ons. Hence, having the ability to spot opportunities, entrepreneurs could identify opportunities in the international markets that will enable further expansion for their activity, while at the same tig the sustainable focus existing in the busines.
This comp	etence has the following descriptors:
Identify	and seize opportunities to create value by exploring the social, cultural and economic landscape.
Examples of communiti	an be to create workplaces for people at risk of social exclusion and professional marginalization and engage in delivery of social services and work integration services for disadvantaged groups a es.
Identify	needs and challenges that need to be met.
A social er market fail	trepreneur needs to identify opportunities in various ways since clearly defined markets rarely exist. This requires a focus on addressing needs of those with little ability to pay and transcending t ures and sufficient government intervention.
<ul> <li>Establish</li> </ul>	new connections and bring together scattered elements of the landscape to create opportunities to create value.
Being able elements c	to see the surroundings and utilise the immediate resources at hand is an important skill for an entrepreneur, as resources are scarce and often hard to obtain. Therefore, to be able to put toget f the landscape will help the entrepreneur in the value creation, for instance unique competences in the local community.

One of the most important competences for a social entrepreneur while moving internationally will be to spot opportunities. Different co often challenges that may not be found in other contexts. As such, as an entrepreneur, you need to have the ability to handle the contexts v	ontexts have different needs, various groups of users and customers, and when spotting opportunities.
In this document, you will be introduced to four 'themes' that this competence consist of:
Identify, create and seize opportunities     Focus on challenges     Uncover needs     Analyse the context
These themes will be explained and definitions will be introduced in the following pages. However, we will start by giving an introduction to	o the competence in general.
About the Competence:
As an entrepreneur, understanding how you can use your knowledge, network, time, money and other resources to create value for yours few that could need you value-creating activity, or if there are many that could benefit from your product or services. If there are only few funding and survive over time. Hence, you need to create a sustainable business whose activity is needed and wanted. Therefore, you need that you should not pursuit.	self and other is central. For instance, you need to understand if it is only w, it might be difficult to establish a business that could get the necessary d to understand which opportunities that are worth working on and those
One way to identify different opportunities is to look for challenges that you could solve for others, for instance challenges with getting a ja way is to identify needs that you could solve. This could be a need for improving a service or production method, for instance better pack time, and is safe for the people transporting the product. However, as you identify new ways of solving a need or a challenge, you might case even though you know of situations where your value-creation is needed or solve a challenge. The reason for this is often that differe beneficial in other contexts.	ob, that could be writing application or obtain necessary permits. Another kaging of products such that the transport becomes more efficient, saves experience that your service is sometimes not needed. This might be the ent contexts have their own characteristics, and one solution might not be
Therefore, there is a variety of different factors you need to consider when spotting opportunities, and in the next pages, we will introduce y	you to them through the different themes this competence consist of.
